
Each later turn is asked on its own, with gold answers for every earlier turn except turn 2. Extra error = error with this history minus error with the gold history, for dependent and independent turns (vs. a run-to-run noise floor).

Circuit breakers (self-check, cross-model check, program re-execution) check planted wrong answers and the model's own natural answers; catch rate on wrong answers, false-alarm rate on right ones.